What is Fostering?

Caring for someone else's child in your own home

Providing an opportunity for a child or young person to achieve the best possible outcomes

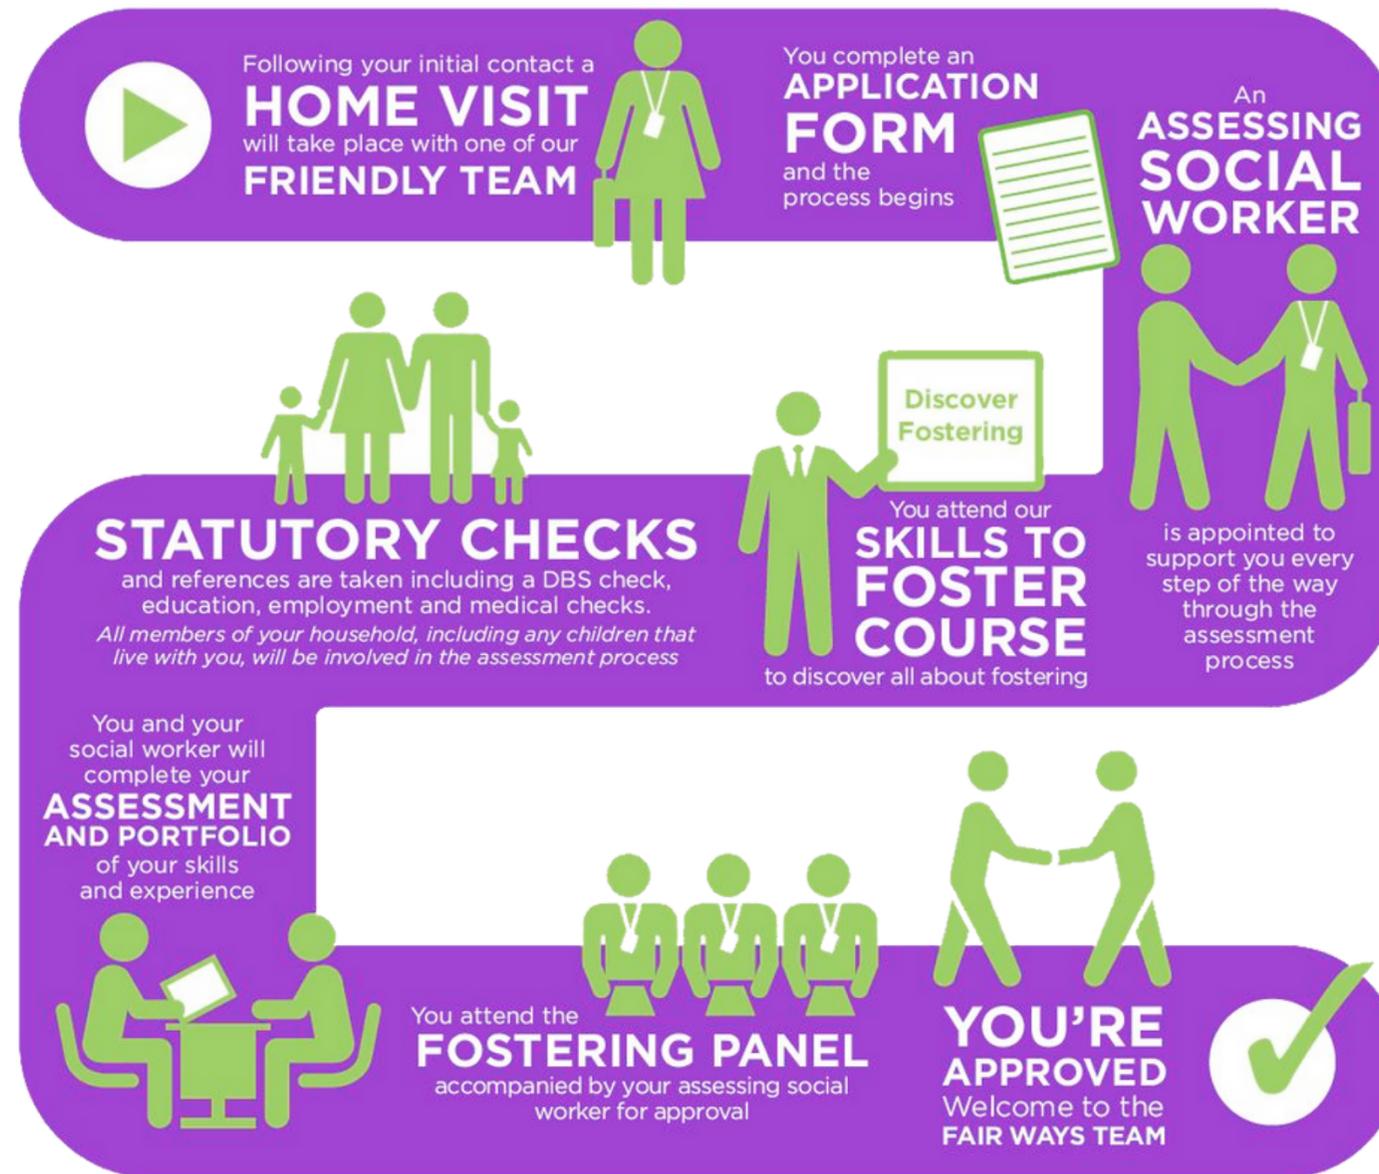

A foster placement provides the stability that is required for children and young people to develop and be looked after in a safe and secure environment. Fostering within a family is often the best way for them to feel protected, supported and start to gain a sense of their self-worth, and contribute to society.

Children come into care from a variety of backgrounds and for a variety of reasons. It is, therefore, necessary to have foster carers that mirror this diversity and are understanding, empathetic and supportive of all their differing needs.
